Numbered linguistic examples can be produced by means of the example environment (for multi-line examples) and examples environment (for subsequent single-line examples):

(1.1) This is a multi-line example

It might consist of several paragraphs

(1.2) This is a single-line example

(1.3) Each paragraph gets its own number

It is recommended to refer to the examples like this: example (1.2). Also to chapters, incidentally: chapter 1 on the previous page.
